

Questions, Answers On Rationing Program

1. Q. Why is it important to have War Ration Book I, aside from needing it to obtain sugar and coffee?

A. Because War Ration Book I, which is to be used for point rationing, will be issued only to persons who possess a copy of War Ration Book I.

2. Q. Why is this being done? I don't need War Ration Book I since I don't drink coffee, and don't buy sugar.

A. It's the Board's way of identifying you. And by cancelling one stamp in Ration Book I when issuing Ration Book II, OPA can make certain that only one copy of the new book will be obtained by each person who owns a copy of Book I. If you do not present War Ration Book I when issuing Ration Book II, you will not be able to obtain a copy of the new book.

3. Q. What will the ration board do with Ration Book I when it turns it in?

A. They will return it to you as soon as they have marked one stamp, to show that Ration Book II has been issued. You will continue to use the book for sugar and coffee.

4. Q. Should persons who own their meals out and have never bought sugar or coffee and don't intend to buy food rationed with War Ration Book II get their ration books?

A. Yes. OPA advises everyone who is eligible for the use of their ration books to have them in their possession. Ration Book II may at any time be called into use which is not known or anticipated at this moment and its universal possession will simplify calling it into use.

5. Q. Suppose I lose my Ration Book I. Did the January 15 deadline mean I must replace it after that date?

A. No. Continuing arrangements are made to replace lost ration books.

MISC. SHOWER FOR MRS. M. EDMONDSON—

Mrs. Milton Edmondson, who before her recent marriage was Miss Nell Rowe, was honored at a lovely miscellaneous shower given in the home of Mrs. T. D. Kendrick on Monday afternoon, Jan. 25 from 4 to 6, with Misses Elizabeth Taylor, Sara Young, Gladys Whitman and Mrs. Foy English serving as joint hostesses.

The Kendrick home was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Smilax and bowls of red japonicas formed the green and white scheme in the dining room.

The guests were greeted by Mrs. Kendrick, who wore a two-piece costume of navy blue crepe with white trimmings and a corsage of miniature white pompon thysantherums, and were presented to the receiving line composed of Miss Elizabeth Taylor, Mrs. Milton Edmondson, however, attractively attired in sea foam blue crepe dress fashioned with lace front and with which she wore a matching face hat and other accessories in black and a corsage of pink roses; Mrs. Gladys Whitman, in white, and Mrs. Foy English, in navy blue, and a corsage of pink roses.

Japs to Grow Crops for U. S.

20,000 Evacuees from West Coast to Be Relocated in Arkansas.

McGHEE, ARK.—Another band of people is coming into Arkansas to carve homes out of near-primitive forests in the Mississippi river bottoms, but they are not coming willingly as did the pioneers of more than a century ago.

This present day band is not of English, Scotch and Irish blood as was that earlier one. Nor will it be menaced by hostile Indians and fierce beasts. But it will be faced with the same Herculean task of converting thousands of acres of heavily wooded lowland into fields of growing crops.

The 1942 infiltration is that of more than 20,000 Japanese evacuated from the West coast defense zone and relocated on two government camps near McGhee, in DeSha county, and the other in Drew and Choctaw counties, on the Louisiana-Arkansas boundary line.

On these two projects, the Japanese are being trained in the use of the soil. The first project is that of a farm where the evacuees will grow food for America's victory effort until they can be sent home.

Soil Is Productive. Both relocation sites are, for the most part, covered with beautiful forest and are lowlands that need some drainage to make them farmable. Contrary to reports, the tracts are excellent both for soil and for water.

They are not infested with malaria, mosquitoes and other pests. The soil is not too difficult to till—the result will be the rich, dark farmland that has made the productive ability of the Mississippi delta world-famous.

Farm Security administration officials describe the land as being of "bale-to-the-acre quality." It is as good as any in the delta and will be necessary to assure complete drainage.

The camp near McGhee comprises a known 1,000-acre cleared area that was purchased by the federal government as an FSA project. The government has contracted to secure options on surrounding land and the exact size of the total project is not known.

It is drained fairly well by a wide canal, but lateral canals will be necessary to assure complete drainage.

The Drew-Choctaw tract comprises about 12,000 acres, of which 1,000 acres are in cultivation. Under tentative plans, approximately 10,000 acres will be drained. It is situated in the southern section of Drew county and the western section of Choctaw county and lies in the Southeastern river valley.

Health Measures Taken. The Nipponese will be housed in barracks similar to those used by the CCC. Barracks will be approximately 25 to 100 feet and will be constructed on each project. Hospitals and schools will be erected. The hospital staffs will be composed of Japanese physicians under the direction of an American head surgeon.

"Every precaution to protect the health of the families will be taken," according to E. B. Whitaker, assistant regional director of the FSA, who will be in charge of the project. "None will be moved into the camp until we are sure he has healthy conditions under which to live."

"Hey, You, Sit Down,"
"Gob Yells at Admiral"

OKLAHOMA CITY. — Frank C. Hall, 40, pharmacist's mate, told Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, hero of the Battle of Midway, where he led in and got away with it.

Hall was a member of the rescue crew attending a West coast plane crash in which the admiral escaped injury. As the plane occupants were being moved to a field hospital, the admiral stood up.

"Hey, you, sit down and be quiet!" Mr. Hall shouted.

Then he became aware of the admiral's presence. "I shouldn't have stood up."

Hall, who has been recommended for a medal for his part in the rescue, described the incident in a letter to his mother, Mrs. M. J. Matthews.

COFFEE COUNTY F. H. A. MEETING

The Coffee County F. H. A. held its last meeting on January 11, 1943, at Enterprise.

The meeting was called to order by the vice president, Katrene Newsome, and minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, Miriam Wise, after which the following program was presented:

Two girls sang "Anchors Away."

The pianist played for a girl to tap-dance two numbers and then played an other number.

The group sang several songs.

The announcement for the joint F. H. A. and F. A. meeting was given for February 8, at Elba. Also the next County F. H. A. meeting is to be held in Elba in March.

We then went to the Home Economics building, where we were served delicious refreshments.

In a letter received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Prescott, Jack Prescott says he is enjoying army life and has taken up boxing and has two knockouts to his credit so far, but he is somewhat apprehensive about his next engagement, as he is scheduled to meet a husky 140-pounder next week.

Thomas Glenn Prescott, six-year-old grandson of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Prescott, fell into an open sewer manhole Tuesday, while at play, causing the street, west from the home of Dr. W. Crook. The little fellow received painful injuries to his head and back, but no serious effects are anticipated.

Other contests planned were Canning and Family Budget Planning in which Foy Faye Bryan won the pen in 1942; the Dairy Contest with 12 entrants; the Best Record in which was won by Nell Saunders in 1942; and the Rural Electrification Contest.

Peanuts Have Many Essential War Uses

Auburn, Ala. — Peanut goals are high this year because peanuts have many important war-time uses.

Fats and oils, always scarce in war years, are needed for our industries, so home-grown vegetable oils have come into greater prominence.

On the home front, peanut oil is replacing coconut, palm and olive oil, the supplies of which have largely been cut off by the war.

Shortening, cooking fat, salad oils, soaps, cosmetics, glycerine, printers' ink and medicine are made from peanut oil.

And the peanuts themselves, always popular as a health food, are high in protein, so they help supply some of the food value ordinarily get from such high-protein foods as meat.

After the oil is extracted the used cake and meal are used for livestock feed. The vines are good cattle fodder, too.

Other things made from peanuts are peanut flour and a cloth fabric which looks like wool. And the hulls become insulated boards, fertilizer and synthetic cork.

With all of these uses for the lowly peanut, the peanut crop of this year is one of the most important war crops. The goals are high but it is highly important to meet them.

Mrs. William Bullard and Mrs. W. R. Crook were visitors to Enterprise last Friday.

THREE IN ONE STUDY CLUB

The Three In One Study Club held its February meeting in the home of Mrs. Sam Sawyer on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Walter Whitman, Jr., and Mrs. Mayo Prescott assisting hostesses.

Mrs. Claude Dorsey, president, presided over the business session. Roll call and minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. Price Ringo, secretary, and reports of committees were given.

Mrs. James J. English was welcomed as a new member into the club.

Following the business period Mrs. Gordon Mathis led an interesting program on "Billions For Defense."

Mrs. Roberta Childs talked on "Social and Economic Implications in the Defense Program," and Mrs. L. L. Farris of Enterprise, a guest speaker, made a splendid talk on "The Defense Program and Reconstruction After the War."

A tempting salad plate with hot coffee was served during a social hour to the following: Mrs. Claude Dorsey, Mrs. Sam Rowe, Mrs. Herbert McCall, Mrs. Roberta Childs, Mrs. Levy Morrow, Mrs. Baxter Bryan, Mrs. Price Ringo, Mrs. J. A. Carnley, Jr., Mrs. Stokes Haire, Mrs. James J. English, Mrs. J. W. Morrow, Mrs. Gordon Mathis, Mrs. Dozier Roberts, Mrs. Gethel Pinckard, Mrs. J. W. Kendrick, Mrs. Sam Sawyer, Mrs. Mayo Prescott, and Mrs. Walter Whitman, and Mrs. L. L. Farris.

COTTON AND PEANUT MOVIE TO BE SHOWN

"Farm Battle Lines," the first picture of the Southern farmer's part in the war, will soon appear in the theatres throughout Alabama through the cooperation of the Republic Pictures, Inc., and the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Its heroes are the men, women and children who are plowing, planting, and canning this country's way to victory. It shows particularly how products of the South—cotton and peanuts—are actually used on the fighting front all over the world.

FARMS TO GET POWER LINE EXTENSIONS

The ban on new electrical connections has been lifted to permit short extensions of existing rural distribution lines to operate specified farm production equipment.

To be eligible, a farmer must: (1) own or be able to obtain one of these: water pump for livestock, milking machine, milk cooler, incubator, brooder, feed grinder (2) have no other means of operating such equipment on the premises; (3) receive certification from County WB that the electrical service will result in substantial increase in farm production or a saving of farm labor; (4) have a minimum of 10 animal units.

Miss Mary Ida Bentley has returned from a visit to Mrs. J. T. Ivey in Montgomery.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Johnson, former residents of Coffee County, announced the birth of a son on Wednesday, Feb. 3, at Baptist Hospital in Selma. The young man has been named William Lamar.

Miss May Windham has been visiting her sister, Mrs. M. G. Chambliss, and family in Montgomery.

S. Sgt. and Mrs. Maxwell A. Reeves, after spending his furlough with relatives and friends in Elba, returned to Camp Gruber, Okla., where Sgt. Reeves is stationed.

Mr. W. R. McDowell, of Brundidge, has accepted a position with Dorsey Brothers in the Chevrolet parts department. His family will move to Elba as soon as suitable quarters can be found.

JUDY FARMER HONORED ON BIRTHDAY

Little Miss Judy Farmer was honored Friday afternoon on her third birthday, at a children's party in the home of Mrs. A. C. Dunaway.

The living room was decorated with seasonal flowers. In the dining room the table was centered with a beautifully embossed cake, inscribed "Happy Birthday Judy," on which were three pink candles.

Games were played and stories told by Mrs. Dunaway. Each child recited a little poem or story in their own childish manner. After gifts were opened, ice cream and cake were served to the following guests: Judy Larkins of Kinston, Patsy Bowers, Judy Pinckard, Betty Lou Harris, Bobby Lou Tindol, Pete Dorsey, Lela Ann Sawyer, Mary Lou Lee, Donnie Morrow, Carolyn Watson, Erskine Ziglar, Shirley Jean Taylor and Billy Mullins.

Mrs. N. B. Creswell and Mrs. Justin Coker assisted Mrs. Dunaway and Mrs. Farmer. Ann Dunaway, Jennette Fleming and Sammie Blue helped entertain the children.

Mrs. Dick Brown and son, Harold, returned to Elba Feb. 8, after spending three months with her husband, Technical Sgt. Quenton E. Brown, who was stationed at Fort Ord, Calif., but is transferred to San Francisco.

This class was among three visited by a Clipper reporter, in company with R. E. Cammack and L. L. Sellers of the State Department of Agricultural Education, J. M. Ward of the State Chamber of Commerce, and other officials of Coffee County on special mission.

At Center Ridge the visiting group sat with a class which was studying increased dairy production and listened to a discussion of the proper care and feeding of young calves, top for the evening.

Frank Bynum, successful young farmer, applied the practical knowledge gained on his own farm in discussing diseases of dairy cattle and their remedies at a meeting of the group he instructed at Mt. Pleasant School. The interchange of ideas included helpful suggestions regarding cures for dairy cattle ills, feeding in relation to milk production, etc.

The three classes are typical of the 102 groups taught in Coffee County in recent months, leading the state in this phase of education. The defense classes were planned primarily for out-of-school youth unable to attend elsewhere and have

COFFEE LEADS STATE WITH 2,652 ENROLLED IN TRAINING CLASSES

Yassir, soon as his finish dis us goner start anuthern," said Dink Williams, grinning colored Ham Bone, as he, assisted by several young boys, put the finishing touches on a wagon they had manufactured in the Defense Class for farm machinery repairing at Chambers' blacksmith shop in Enterprise.

Manufactured in the proper word in this instance, for much nondescript material had been assembled in the where such things are found to be combined into the "two-mule" vehicle. Even the tires were pieced together, but all of it seemed stout and strong enough to do a farmer's hauling.

Citizens are being urged to respond to these needs of our armed forces.

gradually broadened their scope of usefulness. The enrollment to date is 2,652, or an average of 26 students to the group.

Thirty-eight of these groups have studied increased pork production, 16 groups increased poultry production, 15 dairy production, 12 beef cattle, 15 farm machinery repair, 6 vegetables, 2 woodwork.

The vocational teachers of the county's high schools, N. P. Dierich and H. B. Geiger of Elba; B. A. Johnson of New Brockton; and E. E. Krudop of Kinston, serve as general supervisors.

Communities where classes are held and instructors in each are: Center Ridge, N. P. Dierich; Cool Springs and Mt. Pleasant, Frank Bynum; Goodman, Harvey Locklar; Camp Ground, B. L. Taylor; Enterprise Academy, P. A. Youngblood; Enterprise, H. C. Gulleddge; Coppingville, J. S. White; New Brockton Jr. High School, P. A. Youngblood; New Hope, Mrs. Wiloughby; Bethany, J. D. Willis; New Brockton, Mr. Lowery; Harrison, School Principal; Zion Chapel, H. S. Swain; Zion Chapel (two classes), Ace Eddins; Ham, S. L. Carpenter; Pine Level, Woodrow Pierce; Bar, W. L. Walsh; Victoria, C. R. Wise, Elba; Farley, Taylor; Fairview, Mr. Ellis; Perry's Store and Ino, Mr. Nevins; Kinston, Mr. Williams; Brooklyn, School Athletic Coach.

This fact was revealed at a meeting of the Council held in the New Brockton School Friday afternoon with B. P. Dilworth, chairman, in charge. This year the program concerns nutrition and food production in which every school child and every family in the county are participating through a system of relay plans from workers in the schools to the home, from teachers to pupils and from pupils to parents. An increase of interest and effort in these activities is already evident.

B. R. Krudop, vocational teacher, was among the speakers. He discussed ways and means of controlling insects that infest the garden field and home.

Dr. G. L. Weidner, district health officer, discussed sanitation and the part parasites play in the ill health of animal and man.

R. L. Bates, principal of Coffee County High School, Enterprise, Hugh D. Sexton, County Agent, W. L. McArthur, County FSA Project Manager, each brought to the Council table explanations and plans for the successful furtherance of the coordinated effort plan of schooling.

Other campaigns of the Council in addition to food production, feeds, oils and other crops have been soil building, terracing, rat eradication, salvage, farm mobilization, etc.

A program of reforestation through the FFA boys of the county was a major feature of interest.

Visiting officials continued briefly to the program.
